Largest Vote Ever Polled in the State.

Both Sides Are Claiming Large Gains Just Now.

Democrats and Republicans Claim Indiana.

Hill Doing Well.
[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
PLATTSMOUTH, Nov. 6.—The election gains in several districts, but it is thought that the Republican majority in the county will exceed that of 1884. Gov. Hill will run considerably ahead of Cleveland.

Chancellor About as in 1884.
[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 6.—The vote in this city in round numbers is 5,500, of which it is estimated Cleveland will receive 300 and Hill 5,200. These figures represent about the same percentage as in 1884 and 1885. The prohibition vote has fallen off. County returns come in slowly, but all indicate a solid vote.

Good Record at Athens.
[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
ATHENS, Nov. 6.—The Democrats have worked harder than ever, and as the polls closed Chairman Ramsey, of the Democratic Committee, said: "The Democrats have done splendidly all over the county, and the Republican majority cannot exceed 600, and may fall under that."

An Estimate of Rockland.
[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
ROCKLAND, Nov. 6.—Polls just closed and every vote in the east and west parts of Rockland County counted half an hour before the polls closed. Estimates at this hour, at beginning of count, place Cleveland's plurality at 800, with Hill's about 60. The count may cause many surprises.

Harrison's Lead in Buffalo 2,000.
[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
BUFFALO, Nov. 6.—Buffalo has given Harrison nearly 2,000 plurality. Erie County will swing to Cleveland. Basing the estimate on 1884, Hill has run ahead of the ticket 1,000 in this city. Five persons made a mistake in the count, and the result, four Republicans. Three Democratic Assemblies out of five are elected.

Harrison Gains in Canandaigua.
[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
CANANDAIGUA, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Reports from several of the towns in Ontario County show Republican gains. In Canandaigua, the county seat, there is a gain for Harrison over Blaine of 75. Miller will not fall behind Harrison here, and it is claimed by state politicians that his vote in the county will equal Harrison's.

Democrats Gain in Albany.
[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
ALBANY, Nov. 6.—Polls closed here at 4:40. Both sides agree that the Democrats have bettered the majority of 1,400 the city gave Cleveland in 1884. The Democrats believe the county has given Cleveland between 1,500 and 2,000. Hill has probably gone slightly ahead of the National ticket.

Ballot-Box Stuffed at Lyons.
[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
LYONS, Nov. 6.—The town of Lyons is flooded with bogus Republican electoral tickets. Democrats claim a big majority in the town. Ontario Republicans carried the town in 1884. At 3:30 o'clock, in the Second District of Lyons, an attempt was made to stuff the ballot box. A voter handed in a vote. The teller of the box, a man named, dropping the ballot, and then began distributing another. The movement being noticed by the teller, he immediately left and cannot be found. Great excitement prevails.

CLEVELAND GAINS IN KENTUCKY.
[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 6.—A general rain is reported in Kentucky, and the vote will be diminished. Cleveland's majority will exceed that of 1884. Bowling Green at noon gave 4,000 majority for Democratic candidate for Congress. Louisville gave 300 majority for Grant (Dem.) for Congress, against 500 majority for Grant (Rep.).

WISCONSIN PROBABLY REPUBLICAN.
[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 6.—This afternoon the clouds cleared away and the weather could not be improved upon. Scratching is general, and results cannot be foretold. At this writing it seems probable that Smith (Labor and Dem.) will be defeated by Van Hook (Rep.) for Congress. The Republicans will also show large gains upon State and National tickets.

REPUBLICANS CONCEDE FLORIDA.
[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 6.—No news from interior. Republicans concede State by very small majority, and well-posted Democrats say majority will be less than 2,000. Duval's Republican majority will be greater by one-third than ever.

Judge Thurman Voted Early.
[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 6.—A steady rain has been falling all day, but in spite of this by far the largest vote ever cast in this city is now (at 3 o'clock) already cast. No disturbances are reported anywhere, and the voting is altogether by straight ticket. The labor people are reported to have got out their full vote, but if there are any to either party, are not perceptible now. Judge Thurman was driven to a precinct polls in the Sixth Ward early and voted and was seen cheering by those present.

Both Sides Claim Indiana.
[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 6.—Both State Central Committees are in receipt of telegrams from every quarter of Indiana insisting in saying the vote will be large and that a heavy per cent. in anti-protest, and also claim the advantage for respectability. The Democratic Committee are advised of particular heavy gains in Knox, Miami, Jackson and Spencer counties. With a united Democracy more than two years ago there was discussion. The anti-protest continues intense and both sides are getting out every vote that can be brought to the polls. Arrests for alleged violations of election laws are being made by Federal marshals. The prohibition vote will be smaller than anticipated.

By 11 o'clock there had been about a dozen of the men sworn and discharged by the Commissioner, because on inquiry Mr. Shields decided that they could not be legally held. Friends appeared to swear that the prisoners were entitled to vote.

Among these were Joseph W. Frank, of 229 East Twelfth street; Peter Gibbons, of 300 East Thirty-eighth street; James Dorris, of 322 East Thirty-eighth street; George Stevenson, of 22 East Forty-seventh street, and Frederick Harris, of 41 Harrison street.

A RICK THAT ARMY AT THE HARLEM.

The Mission of Davenport's Marshals Explained.

Col. Brice Says They Are Just 2,000 More Republican Votes.

They Are a Very Rough Lot of Healers, Indeed.

DAVENPORT'S UNJUST ARRESTS.

The real significance of John I. Davenport's appointment of two thousand marshals was made apparent this afternoon.

It is alleged that this miscellaneous collection of men, some of whom are colored, are "floaters," and it means just 2,000 votes to the Republican party in this city.

The worst of it is that the United States government is called upon to pay for them under the guise that they are United States employees for to-day.

It was said by Chairman Brice, of the Democratic National Headquarters, this afternoon that there is no doubt about the above allegation.

John I. Davenport's bureau in the Holland Building, opposite the Metropolitan Opera House, was in full blast up to 4 o'clock this morning, manufacturing by the score the special deputies to terrorize the Democratic voters at the polls to-day.

It was expected that the headquarters would be open again this morning at 8 o'clock for Davenport had announced that he would be there on the hour when he closed up his office just before daybreak. He did not keep his word, however, but those who did not get an opportunity to be sworn in last night were on hand in full force, and when Davenport made his appearance about 9 o'clock there were nearly a hundred in the crowd that had gathered around the Fourth street entrance.

They were about as tough-looking crowd of citizens as one could get together anywhere in Gotham, and among them were several negroes.

It is estimated that nearly a thousand of these heeleders were sworn in yesterday, and the intention of the Supervisor of Elections is to have as many as 2,000 sworn in during the day. They are armed with warrants, of which, according to Davenport, 1,500 have been issued, or are ready to be issued on complaint already received.

These special officers receive $5 for each arrest that they make, and the inducement to enter the competition is naturally very lively. The young men who stood at the Broadway entrance of the Holland Building before Mr. Davenport's appearance this morning told all comers that the office was not to be open at daybreak, and that all probability Davenport would not be around it at all.

He afterwards told an EVENING WORLD reporter that he was the janitor of the building, and added that he had been in the building for some time, and that he had been in the building for some time, and that he had been in the building for some time.

Why, "I never saw such a bunch of men in my life," he said, "and they would run the building and drive out all our tenants in two or three days, and I am not going to have it." A dozen or more of the men who were sworn in yesterday were around trying to find some one to give them instructions. One man was grumbling because so few of the Davenport appointees were out in his district this morning.

"I went to every polling place in the Sixteenth Assembly District this morning," he said, "and I only found four men out of the forty-eight street entrance finally began to get impatient and there was loud grumbling at the delay."

Then an emissary from Davenport's private office came on the floor, and he opened the door and a squad of about twenty-five were admitted. As soon as they had been sworn in they went down by the front stairway and hastened off to the districts to which they had been assigned.

It was stated by one of the insiders that the number of deputies to be appointed by Davenport under section 1,984 of the Revised Statutes was about nineteen hundred, and that of this number about two-thirds had already been sworn in.

It was also said that it was doubtful if Davenport would sit at United States Commissioner at the Holland Building to-day on account of the objections of the owners of the building to having it used as a cage for the victims of Davenport's spies.

The statement was made by one of his lieutenants that he would probably stay at the Post-Office Building later in the day, as soon as he had finished swearing his deputy marshals.

Three prisoners only, one negro and two white men, who had been arrested by Davenport on the charge of disorderly conduct, were taken to the police station and committed to the city jail. The men arrested on affidavits of John I. Davenport, charging them with illegal registration, when they reached the United States Court, were examined by Commissioner Shields.

By 11 o'clock there had been about a dozen of the men sworn and discharged by the Commissioner, because on inquiry Mr. Shields decided that they could not be legally held. Friends appeared to swear that the prisoners were entitled to vote.

Among these were Joseph W. Frank, of 229 East Twelfth street; Peter Gibbons, of 300 East Thirty-eighth street; James Dorris, of 322 East Thirty-eighth street; George Stevenson, of 22 East Forty-seventh street, and Frederick Harris, of 41 Harrison street.

It Has Rather a Formidable Appearance, But Just Wait Until It Meets the Democratic Hosts!

visor Angelo Tagliabene ordered Deputy Sheriff Fawcett to arrest Dorrian without any warrant having been issued. Fawcett took Dorrian to the United States Court, but there said he was his friend and refused to swear a complaint against him. Henry Kuhn, of 389 East Thirty-ninth street, was held.

JOHN'S BOLD BLUFF.
Mr. Davenport was invisible to everybody but his aide and Col. George Bliss during the latter part of the forenoon. He was said to have 1,500 warrants out.

In regard to reports that marshals' deputies were interfering with his men, the Commissioner said he would arrest every man who attempted to interfere, even if he were Cleveland himself and it took the entire office to do it.

"I do not intend to sit to-day as a Commissioner," said Mr. Davenport to an EVENING WORLD reporter. "It has not been my habit to do so for several years, and I am not going to do so now. My work ends when I have got all my warrants out, and it only remains to see that my men do their duty and carry out their instructions."

PLENTY OF PRISONERS.
Batches of about twenty were let into the inner pen at a time, and these jammed themselves up around the Commissioner's table in their efforts to have their cases considered early, so that it was all that half a dozen court deputies could do to preserve order.

Edward Mueller, a mail driver, was registered as a resident of 381 Water street, but was said to live at 94 Oliver street. He was discharged.

There were two men who pleaded a clerical error in the taking of their address and were discharged. There were J. H. Schumacher, of 510 West Twenty-sixth street, and Joseph Sober, of 21 West Thirty-first street.

The following had also been discharged at noon: John Sonvener, of 309 Pearl street; H. G. Hyer, 1909 Avenue A; Max Ehrlich, 83 East Broadway; S. W. Wanck, 1239 Avenue A; M. Korner, 225 Second street; Philip Braun, 182 Park Row; F. Mullen, 117 East Fifty-third street; Charles Heath, 114 East Forty-sixth street; William W. Dixon, 157 West Nineteenth street, and George W. Collins.

All of the discharged men estimated an outrage to arrest them. Many of them said that if any honest attempt had been made to investigate their cases they would not have been discharged with the polls.

At noon nearly seventy-five cases had been considered and only two men held.

FORECASTING THE RESULT.
Sheriff Grant Says Cleveland Will Carry the County by 65,000 Plurality.

At 1 p. m. Sheriff Grant called at Police Headquarters and was closed with Supt. Murray some time. On coming out he said he had made a circuit of the city and that his election was assured. He said that all indications were that President Cleveland's plurality in this city would be at least 65,000.

A despatch to the National Democratic Headquarters from Secretary William A. Furey, of the Kings County Democratic Committee, gives estimates to show that Kings is safe for 30,000 plurality for Cleveland. The National Democratic Committee claims Richmond County by 2,500, a gain of 500, and says that the Republicans acknowledge 2,000 plurality for Cleveland.

Eddie Kelly seems to be uniformly running ahead of his ticket. After walking away from his opponents he is receiving hearty support from his friends, the labor men, and still seems to be drawing much more heavily from them than Miller does.

All other goods by fortune's hand is given. A wife is the peculiar gift of Heaven.

Is your wife changed and your home unhappy? Does she go about with gloom on her face and does you see no more the smile that won you? Is she as cold as ice? All these things are the result of a bad case of biliousness. Miller's medicine cures the biliousness, and her system is cleared up, her head is cool, and she will give her love and the atmosphere of home will grow bright again. One day, she will be a different person.

CLEVELAND WAS KNIFED IN SOME DISTRICTS.

Harrison Boldly Supported by Cavanagh's People.

Tammany as Well as the Counties Accused.

The National Ticket Sacrificed for Local Offices.

THE INVITATION TO TRADE.

HEADQUARTERS REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE, 51 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK, NOV. 1, 1888.

Mr. M. T. Ryder, Chairman Republican Conference Committee, Sixth Congress District, N. Y.

Dear Sir: There being no Republican candidate for Congress in the field in your district, I have no hesitation in saying that, in the opinion of this Committee, of the two Democratic candidates, Mr. Cavanagh is preferable to Mr. Fitzgerald. Yours, &c., M. S. QUAY, Chairman.

If Cleveland is to be sold out the County Democracy will do the selling.

This was the prediction of THE EVENING WORLD and of Tammany Hall, and it appears to be verified by the events of this morning.

One of the first and crookedest work at the polls was discovered by the Business Men's Cleveland and Thurman watchers at 82 Greenwich street, where Harrison electoral tickets were being peddled from County Democracy booths.

This is in the First Assembly District and in the Sixth Congressional District, where Quay advised Republicans to vote for the County Democracy candidate for Congress, ex-Alderman John Cavanagh.

This is also the home of Col. Mike Murphy, that "good fellow" who has received the endorsement of Abram S. Hewitt as a candidate for Sheriff.

Copies of the tickets obtained at the County Democratic booths were exhibited to Chairman Brice of the National Executive Committee, who at once communicated with Boss Power and Col. Fellows at the New Amsterdam Club.

These gentlemen were nonplussed at this action of their followers and the little Colonel at once went running for the big Colonel, Murphy. He found Mike at his headquarters in the Twenty-ninth street.

Mike was wroth when he learned of what his organization was accused, and said: "Those business men are a lot of d—d knaves. They will be sure to get a cent for nothing of the kind occurred. The boys are pulling straight."

An EVENING WORLD reporter who was sent to the Sixth Assembly District found that in some parts were openly working for Cavanagh. Tammany men alleged that he and his followers are voting Harrison and Miller for Congress.

Second Assembly District, where they were with them, however, Hugh J. Grant was leading for Mayor this morning.

The Republicans in the Fifth Assembly District are also supporting Charles W. Felt, the United Labor candidate for Assembly.

CAMPBELL AND MCARTHY.
Over in the Eighth District the fight waxed hot between Tim Campbell, County Democrat, and John Henry McCarthy, Tammany, for Congress.

There were all sorts of deals and rumors of deals made between the opposing factions. Barney O'Rourke, the Republican boss, was supporting McCarthy, although yesterday he was said to be out for Tim Campbell.

MORE MCARTHY TRADING.
Julius Schwartz, the Republican candidate for Congress, is apparently only running to be traded for McCarthy.

There are reports of district Grant's name is on the head of the Republican city and county ticket, but not so much as Coogan, who is being traded right and left.

LEADER NEWMAN.
Leader Newman, of the Twenty-first Assembly District, is being traded for McCarthy.

Four Deputy United States Marshals were at once despatched to this place on receipt of the news of the open andagrant violation of the law, and United States Marshal McMahon was requested to increase this force.

CLEVELAND TRADED IN MANY DISTRICTS.
Reports are coming into the business men's headquarters from all sections of the city to the effect that the National ticket is being traded for the local ticket. Both Tammany and the County Democracy are accused of doing it.

Tammany is reported as trading Cleveland for Grant in the Seventh Ward and in the Eleventh, Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Twenty-first Assembly districts, and the Counties in the Eighteenth.

All of these reports are sent immediately to Commissioner Croker at Tammany Hall and to Justice Power and ex-Mayor Cooper at the County Democracy headquarters in Cooper Union, and the leaders of both organizations have promised to be after the crooked workers with sharp sticks.

Is there trading in the Second District that Cleveland was being traded shamefully by the local candidates for their own benefit. The County Democrats said that they had heard the very same thing of Cronin, the County Democracy candidate for Alderman.

Mr. Cronin, when seen, also denied the charge. Later, Chairman Brice, of the Democratic National Committee, has just issued a bulletin denying the rumors of trading.

7 O'CLOCK.
COUNTING

360 Election Districts Give Cleveland 64,065 and Harrison 41,436.

This Would Indicate Cleveland's City Plurality 60,000.

The Twenty-fifth Election District of the Second Assembly District First in the Field.

The Largest Vote That New York City Has Ever Polled.

THE PROHIBITION VOTE IS VERY LIGHT.

Precisely at 4 o'clock the polls were closed and the inspectors and poll clerks began the work of counting the vote, which is said to be the largest ever polled in New York City.

Work was begun first on the National ticket.

The first election district to send in its returns was the Twenty-fifth Election District of the Second Assembly District, which is at 263 William street.

Here are the figures:

Cleveland..... 65
Harrison..... 10
Cowdrey..... 1

Then other returns came slowly in. They were favorably to Cleveland. The Ninth Election District of the Third Assembly District gave Cleveland 244.

Harrison 65, Flak 1 and Cowdrey 7. The Eighth Election District of the Seventh Assembly District next came in, with Cleveland's vote 168 and Harrison's 101. The Thirtieth, of the Third District, gave Cleveland 182 and Harrison 54.

The first ten election districts, from different parts of the city, gave Cleveland 1,500 votes and Harrison 802.

The first fifty election districts turned in gave Cleveland 8,185 and Harrison 4,408.

The returns continued to come in slowly. At 6 o'clock 100 election districts out of 360 gave Cleveland 31,890, Harrison 20,210 and Flak 18
